Cookies and how we use them

We may use cookies to help enhance your Wishing Well Day-Care Limited website experience. A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree the file is added and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual and allows the web application to personalise itself to your specification by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer although this may prevent you from taking full advantage of this or any other website.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over any other website therefore we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting any other website.

Your information

You may request details of any or all personal information which we hold about you at any time under the Data Protection Act. If you believe that any information we are holding on you is incorrect or incomplete, or indeed you would like us to erase any or all of your personal details from our system, please feel free to contact us at any time.
